SHOT DOWN IN STREET AFTER AN ALTERCATION

Monongahela Young Man Slain Early Sunday Morning

ONE IS UNDER ARREST

Henry Trent, Colored Man of Manown, Held in Connection with Shooting

Henry Trent, a negro, who lives at Manown, is in the Monongahela lockup charged with murder while John Coulter, aged 29, a lifelong resident of Monongaheda is dead at his home in Grege street. The shooting took place about 2 o'clock Sunday morning in what is known as the Catsburg "patch" in the First ward of Monongahela. So much excitement was occasioned by the affair that the lockup was guarded to prevent possible trouble.

Coulter in company with Alfred Hodgson and Frank Beto, a young Italian are said to have been at a speakeasy in the "patch" during the evening and left that place about 2 o'clock in the morning. They had gone but a short distance from the house when they met a negro and a woman giving the name of Annie Holmes walking near the railroad track. One of Coulter's companions is alleged to have made some insulting remark to the woman and passed on. Coulter also said something to her and it seems that her escort resented it.

Hot words are said to have passed when the negro is alleged to have drawn a revolver and shot once. Coulter's companions turned at the shot and saw their companion throw up his hands and fall to the ground. The negro turned and ran and the two white men, when finally they realized what had happened, went to Coulter and turning him over found that he was dead.

Hodson and Beto ran to town and gave the alarm and officers, including a detachment of the state police, at once started on the trail of the murderer. An hour later Trent was rounded up and arrested, the credit of the capture being due to Detective Wallace J. Hilton. The body of Coulter was removed to an undertaking establishment, where it was found that a bullet has passed through the heart and lodged in the left lung.

Coroner J. T. Heffran was notified and set a date for an inquest at Monongahela this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The murdered man was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Coulter of Monongahela. He was unmarried.

Previously Rev. and Mrs. Shey had been given a handsome brass clock of unique design and Mrs. Shey had received a fine leather bag as a token of appreciation from the Young Ladies' Altar Guild.

The church to which Rev. Shey goes is a denomination 45 years old. The building is of stone, having been erected during the incumbency as rector of Rev. A. H. Hall, D. D. The church was at one time the most important of the Episcopal denomination in Cleveland.

The snow and windstorm which began after midnight and continued through today hindered traffic to some extent, and made Pittsburg cars somewhat late in arriving. The severity of the storm was generally felt. The wind storm is said to be the advance part of a cold wave.

CHARITY WORK IN STATE IS GIVEN IMPETUS

Harrisburg, Jan. 12—The Board of Public Charities has issued a statement showing that $20,626,084.92 was appropriated by the last legislature for charities and cut by the governor to $16,855,391.31. The board recommended $16,829,239.35, and this is the most striking instance ever known where the governor followed the recommendations of the board. Never before has so small an amount as $26,000 been known between recommendations and approvals. It is quite a feather for the board. The amount allowed for new institutions was $310,000, including a quarter million for the state industrial home for women. In addition the legislature allowed the Department of Health $2,625,000 for the state's campaign against tuberculosis, which has attracted worldwide attention.

The Pennsylvania State Poultry Society which was organized in Pittsburg last year and to which the last Legislature appropriated $2,000 will meet in the parlors of the Bolton House, on Monday, January 26. The announcement of the meting conveys the further information that "it will weld the poultrymen of the State into a vast powerful organization demanding and securing State recognition and aid of one of the greatest and oldest industries of the country. To this end it will draft and have introduced proper bills for proper legislation and what is more it will see that the bills are passed.

Steps to provide the General Assembly of 1915 with a complete code of the existing laws of the Commonwealth are being taken by the State Legislative Reference Bureau under provisions of an act of the last Legislature and the statutes of over 100 years have been overhauled in the process. The acts relative to schools, bituminous mining, militia and other matters have already been codified and the public service law is another form of grouping laws. It is the idea to have the report printed and placed before the general assembly soon after it meets a year hence.

People connected with the automobile division of the state highway department are accustomed to odd requests, but the other day men came in asking for tags No. 44,444 and 55,555 in the same day. He is commander of the Monongahela camp of United Spanish War Veterans and past adjutant general of the national society of this order.

VICTIMS OF QUEER ASSAULT

One Monessen Man in Hospital, Another at Home Badly Hurt

STABBED BY STRANGERS

Mike Helen, a Slav, of Monessen, is in a serious condition at the Charleroi-Monessen hospital and Mike Gradich is nursing a badly bruised and cut head as a result of a mysterious attack which occurred at Wireton early Sunday morning. The two men charged with the murderous attack have not been located and the officers have only the slighrest description of them.

The foreigners concerned are non communicative but from what little can be learned it seems that Helen, Gradich and Steve Poposgoxinick started from Gradich's house in Monessen. As they neared 13th street two foreigners dressed in dark clothing leaped out upon them. One of the strangers attacked Gradich with a pair of "knuckles" beating him over the head. The other sprang at Helen with a knife and literally disemboweled the man. Poposgoxinick fled and summoned help.

When officers and members of the state constabulary reached the scene Helen lay unconscious on the ground while Gradich moaning and holding his head was nearby. Helen was hurried to the hospital and Gradich was taken to his home.

Thus far no clew has been obtained to the men responsible for the deed. The men attacked claim they cannot give any reason for the affair but officers think they know more than they tell and are afraid to talk.

Committee From County to Take Up Matter With Commissioners

INTERESTED ONES MEET

Feature of Meeting is Address by Prof. E. E. Bach of Ellsworth

A meeting was held at Washington Friday of those interested in the matter of mothers' pensions, provision for which has been made in a recently enacted state statute. Good representations were in evidence from the membership of the Junvenile Court committee, the Children's Aid society and the Civic Club of Washington.

A feature of the meeting was an address by E. E. Bach, superintendent of industrial work at Ellsworth and Cokeburg. Mr. Bach is also in charge of the schools in these two towns, being retained by the Ellsworth Colleries company to investigate civic conditions in the two communities and to devise means to improve them.

In answer to the claim set forth in some quarters that the mothers' pension fund proposition was not necessary, Mr. Bach said that in his work in Washington county he had frequently come upon mothers, widows of mine victims and others, who did not desire to give up their children, and yet who were unable properly to provide for them, and to whom a mothers' pension fund would prove a Godsend. Mr. Bach told interestingly of his social welfare work, and heartily endorsed the new law.

At the Washington meeting a committee of four was appointed to recommend five or seven persons for appointment by the governor to a county committee which will have charge of the investigation of conditions and the distribution of the mothers' pension fund in this county, if the commissioners decide to avail themselves of the opportunity provided for in the new law. This committee comprises Mrs. J. A. McIlvaine, chairman of the Juvenile Court committee; Miss C. C. Thompson, president of the Children's Aid society; Mrs. F. B. McKinley, president of the Civic club, and Mrs. George W. Reed.

This committee will endeavor to interest the county commissioners sufficiently to prompt them to take action which will make possible the application of the provisions of the mothers' pension law to Washington county.

A story of how a girl is lifted from the depths to a better life, to become the wife of a loving husband and of how she is discovered by one of her former associates, to be terrorized and to finally lose her life, is the narrative pictured in one of the best pictures to be shown tonight at the Lyric theatre. The title of the picture is "Love's Sunset." In addition to this film others to be shown will be "The Family's Honor," an Edison drama, "Bianca," a Vitagraph drama, featuring George Cooper and Margaret Gibson and "A Fallen Hero," a Biograph farce comedy.

A third speaker on State's efforts to market eggs came in a lecture by Prof. E. W. Professor Benjamin threw light on the street campaigns in Philadelphia and New York, where leaguers consumers caused the sale in free markets of cold storage eggs at prices easily within the reach of all. He thought that the associations had accomplished one important result, in that they had taught the public that cold storage eggs properly candled are good and fit articles of food, and should so be recognized.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Ida M. Tarbell publishes in the January American Magazine a thrilling description of the work of the Court of Domestic Relations in Chicago—a court which settles disputes between husbands and wives. Following is a story of a wife-beating case that Miss Tarbell saw settled:

"In a touching case a woman of fifty, gentle, hard-working and respectable, had served a warrant on her husband for beating her. They had no children; he never drank. He worked regularly, and regularly 'beat her up.' 'She wasn't strong as she used to be,' she said apologetically, and 'she coudn't stand it.' The judge looked at the big bent, surly-faced fellow and broke out in wrath. 'You've got to go to the Bridewell, that's the place for you, a man who will beat a woman like that!—all worn out, and a good wife, anybody can see that. You'll go to the Bridewell for a year.'

"The man looked up in real alarm—'But what will she do, Judge? We ain't got much ahead. She ain't got anybody but me. How'll she live?' His concern for her was perfectly sincere. 'She's nobody but you, and you b eat her,' exploded the judge. The man seemed like one wakened from a stupor. 'I'll never do it again, on my honor I won't. I didn't know she was sick; I didn't realize. Things got so hard—nothing but slave, and I just got into the habit, guess I took it out on her. I'll never strike her again in this world.'

"The woman behind him with the tears streaming down her face, said: 'He won't Judge. Don't send him away. He won't beat me if he says he won't. He has had it hard.'

"Well, they went off happy and I, for one, do not doubt his keeping his word."

RAILROADER DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

Michael Patrick Condon, aged 60 years, one of the well known residents of Donora died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. A. Ley, 601 Thompson avenue, Donora. His death was due to kidney trouble.

Mr. Condon was born February 2, 1854. On December 25, 1877 he was married in Pittsburg to Miss Mary J. Ray of Gallitzin. Mr. Condon was a veteran railroader having been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad since 1869. He entered the company's service at Kitanning Point. For 22 years he was passenger agent at West Elizabeth and nine years ago he came to Donora, having been located in the telegraph department at Wilson station. He was a member of the Veteran Employes' association of the Pennsylvania railroad. In 1896 Mr. Condon was a candidate for the state legislature losing out by four votes. He was at the time of his death a member of St. Charles Roman Catholic church of Donora.

Besides his wife Mr. Condon leaves four children: Mrs. E. A. Armsey, Mrs. P.A. Ley and John P. Condon, all of Donora, and Frank M. Condon, a member of Company B, 25th United States infantry, stationed at Galveston, Texas. He also leaves four brothers and one sister: Thomas Condon Gallitzin; Andrew Condon, Bakerstown; James Reagan, Philadelphia; E.A. Reagan, Altoona, and Miss Mary Condon of Cresson. Seven grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held in St. Charles church Donora Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock, mass to be celebrated by the Rev. Henry Geibel. Interment will be in St. Dominic's cemetery.

Beef of 1889 Still Fresh.

R. Whymper, writing in Knowledge, mentioned that a piece of beefsteak which his uncle, the late Edward Whymper, the Alpinist, sealed up in a vacuum in 1889, is still in a remarkably good state of preservation.

One Kind of Declaration.

"I love you, Estelle," he continued, "star of my soul. I loved you through opera glasses at the opera . . . and I shall love no one else!"—"Women I Have Loved" by Henry Crane.

What Joy.

Legitimate actors may sneer, but the actor who acts to the "movies" has one privilege worth more than gold or precious stone—he can see himself act.

Too Fond of Giving Advice.

He gave advice and never quit. He tossed it round both far and nigh and was annoyed when some of it flew back and hit him in the eye.

Cheapness Due to Robbery.

A curious bid to bargain hunters is found in an advertisement of one of the great department stores of New York city: "It is often possible to give better values in Kurdistans than in any other rug," says the announcement, after speaking of the Kurds as a "robber tribe," "inasmuch as the Kurds steal from the semi-wild herds of sheep a large proportion of the wool that goes to these rugs."

Try Laughing at Yourself.

In Woman's Home Companion in the course of a talk to girls about friendship with boys, appears the following wise observation: "It is not a bad idea at all to laugh at one's own failures. It indicates at least that you have imagination: that you can imagine how funny other people must think something that yo uhave done."

Good Model.

He was somewhat eaten up with a mistaken consciousness of his own importance, and when he was making his great speech in the Muddlecombe mock parliament, he noted that one of the local pressmen appeared to be sketching him. When the "house" adjourned he buttonholed the artist.

"I believe—aw—you were—aw—sketching me; isn't that so—aw?" he inquired.

"That is so," replied the artist.

"Well—aw—would you—aw—tell me what newspaper you—aw—represent—aw?"

"I don't represent any newspaper," answered the artist. "I design comic postcards."—Tidbits.

Bothered by Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Head or Chest Colds

Try the New External Treatment—Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption. No Stomach Dosing

For years we have been dosing ourselves to cure cold troubles despite the fact that vapor treatments are quicker and do not disturb the stomach. The trouble has been that the old methods of administering these vapors such as vapor lamps, etc., were very cumbersome. Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Croup and Pneumonia Salve contains Methol, Thymol, Eucalyptol, Camphor, and Pine Tar, combined by a special process, so that they are vaporized when Vick's is applied to the heat of the body. These vapors open the air passages, loosen the phlegm, and heal the inflamed mucous membrane.

For Catarrh and Head Colds melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors. Also apply well up the nostrils. For Asthma and Hay Fever follow the above instructions and also rub well over the spinal column, thus relaxing the nervous tension. For Bronchitis, Sore Throat, and deep chest colds apply well over chest and throat, first opening the pores by applications of hot wet towels. Then cover with a warm flannel cloth, leaving the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be inhaled all night long. In addition Vick's is absorbed through the pores taking out the tightness and soreness. Three sizes—25c, 50c, and $1.00.

PURE BLOOD

Cause of Disease..Druggist Tells of Best Remedy For It

Pure healthy blood is a most essential factor to good health.

Poor, thin, devitalized blood may be caused by a weakness of the digestive organs an accumulation of waste matter in the system an inactive liver or lack of exercise.

Whatever the cause the best remedy we know is our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It will purify and enrich the blood, tone up the digestive organs, give you a hearty appetite and create strength.

A case has just come to our attention from Gulfport, Miss. Mrs. Armelise Saucier says, "For months I was in a run-down condition and my blood was very poor. I had taken several medicines prescribed by physicians but they seemed to do me no good. Vinol was recommended and from the first bottle I noticed an improvement. I continued its use and now feel as strong and well as ever."

If you have the slightest indication of poor blood take Vinol. If it fails to help you we will give back your money. Piper Bros., Druggists, Charleroi, Pa.

CHARLEROI HIGH WINS ITS FIRST FROM TECH TEAM

In a game that was fast and furious from the blowing of the referee's whistle starting the struggle until the close, Charleroi high school won at basketball from the Carnegie Tech Industrials Saturday night. The game was the dedicatory event for the high school gymnasium in the new high school building, as well as the opener of the season for the regular high school team.

Charleroi high set the pace the entire evening. They started off strong and ended strong. Carnegie had to play on the defense, and got comparatively few chances for field shooting, and only four field goals all told.

REFUSES DIVORCE ADMITTING HUSBAND IS NOT OF THE BEST

As a husband, Paul Mijean, of Charleroi, is admitted by Judge R. W. Irwin to not be a model or a good pattern for anyone to follow but he sees no reason for the granting of a divorce sought by his wife, Mary Victorine Mijean. The court holds that the evidence does not establish such cruel and barbarous treatment as to endanger the libellant's life, or such indignities to her person as to render her condition intolerable and her life burdensome.

The court says:—"That the husband was far from being a model in the home is manifest, that he failed in the discharge of the duties assumed when he took her for better or for worse is clear from the testimony, but all this may be true and yet no legal ground exists for dissolving the marriage relation."
